Promotion in Girls' Schools.

364 MR. A. NARAYANA PILLAI (Vaikam): Will the Government be pleased to state the basis on which promotions are given in girls schools?

MR. K. GEORGE (Chief Secretary to Government): Staff. Promotions are given to teachers and head-mistresses generally according to the seniority in the gradation list.

Pupils. Promotions to pupils are given on the basis of marks secured in the examinations conducted in schools in addition to their regular attendance, satisfactory work, etc. Circular instructions have been issued by the Inspectress of Girls' Schools to the schools fixing the percentage of marks required for each subject in order to get promotion and this principle is being followed.
